

POSITION OPENING OHIO COALITIONS OUTREACH COORDINATOR

The Empowerment Alliance (TEA) is looking for an Ohio coalitions outreach coordinator.

This would be a great position for someone looking to get started in politics, communications, energy policy, etc.

TEA is committed to promoting the benefits of natural gas as a clean, domestic, affordable, abundant energy source. Go to empoweringamerica.org for more information on TEA's mission.

This position would require substantial amount of travel around the state speaking various business and community groups, with a special focus on the agricultural community.

Requirements:

- An interest in energy policy and promoting the benefits of natural gas.
- Self-motivated and able to schedule meetings several weeks out.
- Possess reliable transportation. Mileage will be reimbursed.
- Ability and desire to speak in public on energy policy issues.

Know anyone who might be interested? If so, please have them contact Mitch Given at mitch@mithgiven.com or text/call 614-352-8333.